

A Declaration of Intent to Administrate
Yasothon Primary Educational Service Area Office 2

Yasothon Primary Educational Service Area Office 2 has agreed to promote to disseminate And to instill the attitudes the values and the honesty in the office for teachers and educational personnel. To encourage the Office of Educational Service Areas and Schools to be honest in accordance with agreements made with the Office of the Basic Education Commission (OBEC) including the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU).

The Yasothon Primary Educational Service Area Office 2, Education administrators and civil servants will perform to prevention and suppression of corruption in the public sector that

1. The Performance of duties

Personnel under the Yasothon Primary Educational Service Area Office 2 have to perform duties with integrity, transparent without expecting anything back.

2. The budget usage

Personnel under the Yasothon Primary Educational Service Area Office 2 have to be aware of spending the national budget that the budget is from the citizen taxes. Must be spent appropriately and economically according to the sufficiency economy' s philosophy. The responsible agencies must operate with transparency and accountability.

3. The authority for administration

The commander must perform their duties fairly without violating the law and regulations.

4. Use of government property

Personnel under the Yasothon Primary Educational Service Area Office 2 have to use the government service and properties to benefit the government. Do not use government service or properties for personal use.

5. The corruption problem solving

Promote the personnel under the Yasothon Primary Educational Service Area Office 2 use national strategy about the prevention and suppression of corruption to use in their working.

6. Operational quality

Personnel under the Yasothon Primary Educational Service Area Office 2 have to do their duty by following the laws and regulations in order to achieve efficiency and effectiveness with performance of their official duties.

7. The communication efficiency

To jointly establish communication channels, disseminate and publicize to support operations as a cooperative network to prevent and combat corruption and conducting the preparation of information of the agency to publicize by providing a communication channel that can access various information conveniently and quickly, being accurate and up to date information.

8. The operation system improvement

All departments in the educational office has to make improvements to the system to make it fast and more efficient, modern and able to be used with convenience so that people will trust the news improvements more efficiently.

9. Information Disclosure

The Yasothon Primary Educational Service Area Office 2 bring and disseminate information on the public website www.yst2.go.th. Use basic information with press release, (Social Networking), communication channel, procedural information including budget expenditures, plan and procurement information, human resources management and development information, fraud complaint management information and channels for public participation. To show transparency in management and operations.

10. Corruption Prevention

Personnel under the Yasothon Primary Educational Service Area Office 2 perform work according the guidelines of good faith can check and enhance the corporate culture to be an organization without corruption and misconduct.

Announced on November 28, 2023

(Mr.Pittaya Numboonlue)

The Director of Yasothon Primary Education Area Office 2